Amanda was such a sweet, & friendly girl. My sister Rose babysat for all you girls when you were young. It was a pleasure watching Amanda at the telethons & I would run into her every once in a while. We reconnected with Facebook & chatted quite a bit. She recently came to see me in the hospital after my heart attack, twice n fact...while she herself was ill & getting treated. She showed true caring & selflessness in coming to we me It meant so much to see her again, we laughed a little about something funny & she showed me pictures of her beautiful children & talked about my boys too. Anyway I just wanted to share my last memory of Amanda from just a few weeks ago. & let you all know that you are in my prayers. She touched so many lives & will be remembered & missed.

“ It is so hard to hear about your passing, Amanda. I wish I had kept in better touch with you. I think of you as a little girl at Girl Scout camp. I used to come over to your house and I think we had a sleepover one time and went to the mall the next day. I loved that you were the representative for the march of dimes. I remember seeing you at bowling and your purple car that you had gotten adapted so you could drive it. You were an amazing girl. I had no idea you had children, let alone 3! You are an inspiration, Amanda and took life as you were presented with it and conquered it! My prayers to your children and family! See you one day in heaven, my friend!!

“ My prayers are with the family of Amanda Dawn Agee and the family of my classmate and friend, Faye Agee Webster. A Christian "passes up to heaven". Our memories of love ones stay with us. As Christian when we leave this world, that our spirit goes to be "in the presence" for eternity with Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. May the God bless and comfort you during this time.
