“ I am so saddened to hear of Frank's passing.....I saw him and Russ a year or so ago at Danview Restaurant, the first time I had seen them in years.....Frank had just retired and was obviously delighted to be free from the "9 to 5".....however I sensed the impact he had on many students over his years of introducing and cultivating art.....I fondly remember times hanging out with the guys way back before their move to Atlanta and beyond.....Frank was always cheerful, smiling and fun to be around.....much time passed, as seems to be the case so often, but my heart felt good in seeing him, and Russ, catching up briefly in an "eating spot" surrounded by seniors.....wow.....life is energy, yet fragile.....time is infinite, yet quick.....Eternity is permanent, and to Frank well deserved
