“ My sincere condolences go out to my cousin Jeff and family, Aunt Nancy, and Aunt Nellie for the loss of Uncle Jinker. Uncle Jinker was the backbone of the Moss Family. Uncle Jinker is up in heaven with Aunt Callie, Ma and Pa Moss, and his seven brothers looking down on all of us left here on earth until we all meet again. Jinker will be missed by us all but never forgotten. RIP Uncle Jinker miss you, love always. Prayers to Cousin Jeff, Joshua, Jacob, Aunt Nancy and Aunt Nellie for peace and comfort for the days to come.

“ Prayers for the family and Vandola community. "Pop" was a true southern gentleman. He took care of his family, instilled the same values that he was taught as a child. As I often told him, "the Moss blood runs deep." He was proud of his son and often shared how " a good man" he had grown to be. He always said Jeff took after his mom. But for me, i believe Jeff got wonderful traits from both Barney and Callie. I know one thing for sure. Barney was proud of Jeff. He appreciated the care he was given and the efforts made to be sure his every need was met. And, Jeff was most respectful of his Pop in every way. "Pop" will be missed by many but I know he will enjoy seeing Callie and his family again. Rest in Peace and thank you for reminding us what a true gentleman really is.
