“ Dear Diane and Gregg,

You know my heart is broken now that I will no longer spend fun time e-mailing and telephoning with Spencer. I have so many, many memories of our years, our super years together in Gastonia. Do you remember when The Judge would come down and spend the night at our house playing with Brandy? Or the times Spencer would call and ask Brandy to bring the newspaper back? Or the times with Diane and Miss Ashbrook pagents and dances and gowns? Or the boys, John and Gregg, going to little league practice and the fun they shared? Or our parties.....oh, our parties. There are so many happy, wonderful memories. Keep them close to your hearts. I surely will keep them close to mine.

God bless you and your families.

*Love,
Irene*

“ We were saddened to hear of Spence's passing. We were across the street neighbors of Spence in New Bern and became good friends. Spence, James and Cotton stayed with me in Raleigh during the last hurricane and we kept each other company for hours, eating, telling jokes, snoozing, and more eating while the power was out. He was a very nice person, a good neighbor, funny and a great friend. We will miss him.

“ I loved my uncle Spencer and my Aunt Shirley so much and have lost them both this year. I have many fond childhood memories of visiting them in Gastonia, Maryland, and I am sure a few other towns that they lived in. Spencer always took time to spend with me and I can vividly remember a few shopping excursions with just the two of us. You were such a class act Spencer and I hope you know how much I loved you.

*Your Special Niece,
Karen*
