“David T. Collie, oh how many laughs we all have shared with you. Never was I not around you where you didn't make me laugh. When there was a party/dance you were always ready to dance and very good at it. A heart of gold, would do anything for anybody if you could. Memories are all we leave behind and the ones I have for my uncle are all happy ones. Our family lost a piece of our heart when you left us but be not selfish because you are now with our heavenly father and free from this world of pain and sorrow.

“ *I am deeply saddened and heart broken by the passing of my long time friend. He had such a good soul. He was always kind and polite and he never let me forget I was his friend. One day we will dance together again. I loved him dearly. He was like a brother and will leave a large hole in my heart. My sincerest condolences to his family. God be with you and give you strength during this transition period in your lives. David will never be forgotten.
