“ Sammy and Teresa -- I am so sorry for your loss. Aunt Frances is someone that I will never forget. I am so glad I was lucky enough to find some of my birth family. It has meant the world to me. I will never forget when Uncle Sam brought my Mom, Aunt Lois and Aunt Frances to Florida and your Mom and Aunt Lois were so afraid of the little lizards that were outside. Please stay in touch as I will with you. Thanks for being such a wonderful family that I did not know I had.

“ So hard to let our loved ones go even though they are going to a place of perfect peace. Aunt Frances was an icon. Our last aunt in the family and someone who was loved and enjoyed by everyone. I don't know that I ever heard her speak harshly or do anything that was not gentle and kind. I rejoice with her for deliverance from suffering and all sadness. May the good memories comfort Sammy and all the family in the days ahead. Rest well, faithful servant.

Aunt Francis was most special to our family. Every time there was a gathering whether it was a shower, reunion, New Year's, when she arrived (usually with Rachel) the joke was the party had arrived! She was always smiling and made everyone around her happy as a result. She enjoyed life no matter the circumstance. Even when visiting her the week before she passed, her words were, "no used to complain, won't do any good anyway!" I am so thankful for example in our family. May we all be like our Aunt. Joyful. Every day we have is a blessing any way. She taught us much by her example. She is dancing on new legs that hurt no more!!! Gerald and Jewel Hancock
