“ Remembering the visits from Patsy's family when we were children. They would come down to our farm in Sutherlin. Had fun playing together. Although didn't see much of the family until I moved back to Danville. It is nice to reconnect to family again and I did get to see Patsy at my Mother's birthday party in January. Our prayers have been with the family . Love Janet and Tom

“ Danny, Penny, Raymond, Roger, Larry and Philip, we are so sorry for your loss. Pasty was such a fun person, me and Don double dated with her and Danny, Going to drive-in movies, bowling and hanging out at Wimpys, those were the days, happy days making memories. She will truly be missed. She loved her family as you all know and I will miss her.
Last year we had a fun time remembering our young days, that I will cherish. Danny you were her true love, her family was also, she spoke of you all In such a loving way, that is so comforting. Patsy, my friend we will meet again in our Heavenly Home, thank you for fun times. I love you....Nancy Satterfield
