“ I just wanted to express my condolences over the loss of your loved one.

I would like to relate a comment my father made to me before his impending death, "The love that we have for each other will always be there."

Sincerely, Billy

“ My thoughts and prayers are with each one of you during this most difficult time.

Patsy was such a precious person and loved her family greatly. I know the Mullins family have a lifetime of memories of this wonderful, giving person.

I know that her passing is a great loss but Heaven has gained a beautiful angel. Love to each of you!
