I have known Ralph for about 40 years, ever since our sons played little league baseball at Coates Elementary School. Lost track for a few years but reunited 6 years ago when Bill and I moved back to VA. One of the sweetest, nicest, devoted Christian men, faithful to God and the church, awesome father, husband, grandfather and friend. My heart aches at our loss but we will all be together again one day and with Jesus.

He will be missed by so many especially those of us in his Sunday School Class. Rest in peace Ralph, you have won your journey. My thought and prayers are with his family.
