

William Jesse Thompson

May 25, 1944 - May 3, 2013

William Jesse Thompson, 68, of 102 Carriage Hill Drive, Lot 2-B, Danville, VA died Friday, May 3, 2013 at his residence after a decline in his health for the past two years.

Mr. Thompson was born on May 25, 1944 in Williamson, West Virginia, a son of the late William Jess Thompson and Virginia Mae Kirk Phelps. He lived most of his life in Danville, VA, and he had retired, due to disability, as a painter.

He was of the catholic faith and enjoyed working on cars and lawn mowers. He was an avid sports fan of NASCAR, football and boxing.

Survivors include his wife, Betty McCoy Moore, of the residence; a daughter, Patricia Thompson, of Eden, NC; two sisters, Mary Lou T. Owen, of Brosville, VA, and Bertha T. Maxey, of Dry Fork, VA; eight nieces, one nephew and three great nieces also survive.

In addition to his parents he was predeceased by two brothers, Howard S. Thompson and Walter H. Tawney; two nephews, one niece and his faithful companion, Buddy.

The family will receive friends on Monday, May 6, 2013 at the Wrenn-Yeatts

Westover Chapel from 7:00 – 8:30 p.m. and at other times at the Joann Kirks residence, 589 Cedar Ridge Road, Dry Fork, VA.

Funeral graveside services will be held later in Kentucky.

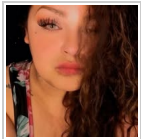

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is serving the Thompson family.
